Collegiate Ambassador Program

The 1899 Society Collegiate Ambassador Program is a group of Alpha Sigma Taus committed to advancing a culture of philanthropy in their chapters and sharing the impact of the Alpha Sigma Tau Foundation.

Role

The role of a Collegiate Ambassador is to lead your chapter Sisters in joining the 1899 Society with your own gift of $18.99 each calendar year. You will also serve as a primary chapter contact for the 1899 Society and will receive regular communication from Alpha Sigma Tau's national Director of Development.

Responsibilities

Ambassadors will be expected to complete small tasks throughout the academic year. Examples may include gathering photos or quotes from your chapter Sisters for marketing use, presenting the 1899 Society to your chapter during a business meeting, serving as a Founders Day of Giving Ambassador, and participating in one conference call per semester.

Opportunity

We hope to provide Collegiate Ambassadors with opportunities for personal and professional development. This includes interaction with staff and national volunteers, private group networking, references and recommendations, and more.

1899 Society FAQ
